ALIGNING VOICES & VALUES AT REACH SUBSEA

Culture shapes how we connect

It's the shared language of values, behaviours, and symbols within a group. But when groups differ, communication styles can clash.

At Reach Subsea, we work across diverse national cultures, bringing differences in how we communicate, give feedback, and handle silence.

Here are three key cultural dimensions to keep in mind:

1. Communication Style (High vs. Low Context)

Be explicit and clear. Avoid assumptions or hidden meanings.

2. Feedback Style (Direct vs. Indirect)

Adapt your feedback, honesty isn't always received the same way.

3. Comfort with Silence (High vs. Low)

Some speak through silence. Others fill every second. Respect both.

Understanding how we speak

Constant Overlap
Talking over each other.

Serve and Return
Ping-pong style back-and-forth.

Deliberate Pauses
Waiting briefly before responding.

Watch for quieter voices, they may be waiting for space to speak.

Let's build a culture where every voice is heard and every difference respected.
